The Reduxi mobile app provides a user-friendly overview of electricity consumption measurements and analyses. All electrical devices connected to the system are displayed in the app.

With the Reduxi mobile app, you always have access to data on electricity consumption, distribution, and pricing—right at your fingertips. The app is available for both smartphones and tablets, with all data securely stored in the cloud.

To see your devices in the Reduxi mobile app, you first need to connect your Reduxi Controller and configure it using the Reduxi Configurator. Instructions and additional information are available in the following support article: Reduxi Configurator
