WHAT ARE COOKIES

Cookies are small text files that are sent by the server to the web browser and then stored by the Configurator on the user's computer or smart device.

We can use cookies to provide you with the best possible user experience on our Configurator.

Some cookies may come directly from our Configurator - "First Party cookies". Some cookies may come from third parties - "Third Party Cookies".

Cookies can be stored on your device or browser for different lengths of time. Session cookies are deleted from your computer or device as soon as you close your browser. Persistent cookies remain stored on your computer or device until you delete them or until they expire.

TYPES OF COOKIES

There are different types of cookies. Some cookies are necessary for operation, some are used to better understand users. By using cookies, we can optimize and improve the user experience.

WHAT TYPES OF COOKIES DO WE USE?

Necessary cookies

These cookies make the web Configurator useful by enabling basic functions such as navigation and access to secure areas of the Configurator. The Configurator does not function properly without these cookies.

COOKIE SETTINGS

The Configurator user can change and adjust the use of cookies in individual web browsers. The default settings in most browsers require permission to use cookies. If you wish, you can block our cookies in your web browser. Please note that blocking cookies will prevent the Configurator from working correctly or as effectively.

Below are links to some web browsers where you can adjust the use of cookies:

- Microsoft Edge here,
- Mozilla Firefox here,
- Google Chrome here,
- Apple Safari here.
